Civil Aviation Regulations

The Regulations present ICAO standards as regulatory requirements for aircraft and operators expected to operate internationally. The Implementing Standards provide detailed requirements that support the intent of a regulation presented in a Part, but have the force and effect of the governing regulations. Read more...

Advisory Circulars

Advisory Circulars are circulars which disseminate information and procedures to the public on how to achieve a desired end result, for example, how to achieve certification of an AMO. Circulars are divided into the following four categories:

1. General Advisory Circulars or GACs
2. Operations Advisory Circulars or OACs
3. Airworthiness Advisory Circulars or AACs
4. Personnel Licensing Advisory Circulars or PLACs
